

We prioritize sending field partners

PROXIMATE TO THE LEAST REACHED

Global Teams

Urban GT workers minister among the remote mountain people.

Kenyan field partners crossed this bridge to reach a group in Tanzania.

A Muslim background believer crosses the lake to engage the a group on the other side.

The path can be hard to find.
WE SEARCH FOR IT.

Photo by Kashif Afridi

Pray for a path to the remote Kalash of Pakistan.

DEPENDENT ON GOD

Expecting to find Him already at work

Healings in answer to prayer are common in Bangladesh, where medical care is lacking.

Jesus often gets more famous during persecution.

Central Asian women face enormous difficulties for their faith. They support each other at a GT training in Kazakhstan.

Compassion opens doors.

INTENTIONALLY ENGAGE

finding access points

Schools, water projects and medical services build trust, prompting spiritual conversations.

*Farming.
Why do it yourself when you can employ Muslims to work alongside you?*

As they study together, the scriptures transform the Turkana from within.

The newly completed Karakalpak Bible.

The Spirit of God uses the
THE WORD OF GOD to teach all peoples

Translators labor to produce a culturally understandable translation in South Asia.

THE RESOURCES FOR MISSION

are in every people group

Like most field partners, Anna ministers co-vocationally. Her GT enabled cashew business provides for her family and puts her in contact with Muslims.

This sausage shop in Malawi provides funding for children's outreach.

By sharing in a group, both believing and yet to believe men in Mozambique grow accustomed to speaking openly about spiritual matters.

GT trains Afghan refugees to reach their own people using simple, reproducible methods.

MULTIPLY DISCIPLES OF JESUS

For the Gospel to spread rapidly, Jesus must not be perceived as foreign. The message must be planted like leaven within the culture.

Indian students in a remote village spell the name they had not heard before.

PUT YOUR MONEY TO WORK FOR THE KING.

GT prioritizes proximate sending and international partnership, so your financial investment goes further. Don't bury your resources in the ground! Prayerfully consider a one-time or recurring gift as together we bring the news of King Jesus to the least reached!

Give online at <http://weblink.donorperfect.com/gtmain>

Global Teams

800 Tuskawilla Rd
Winter Springs, FL 32708
407.388.0855
www.global-teams.org